

WONDERFUL OPPORTUNITY FOR STUDENTS GRADES 7-12!

(Note: We are using email lists from a variety of sources so you may receive this email more than once – we are trying to reach many with this important info!

Please share with others on your email address lists)

THIS EMAIL IS FROM THE SCHOLASTIC ART AWARDS - WISCONSIN at the Milwaukee Art Museum. This is a wonderful opportunity to encourage quality art work done by students grades 7-12.

Silver Key & Gold Key Award winning art works will be exhibited February 4 - March 4, 2012, at the Milwaukee Art Museum, and Gold Key Award winners will proceed on to national competition.

An opportunity for you to encourage quality and excellence!

1. To receive all info specific to enter the 2012 Scholastic Art Awards - Wisconsin at The Milwaukee Art Museum, please email Helena.Ehlke@mam.org.

Please give your name, school, school zip code & phone number.

2. You will within a week, by return email, be emailed the info needed to enter in Wisconsin:

a) Calendar with all dates for duration of competition & exhibit (entries are due January 2, 3, & 4, 2012 but you will need all other info also);

b) Inventory-Packing Form which becomes your Notification of results;

c) Specific details how & where to enter in Wisconsin (“Regional Entry Info”);

d) Info re photographing & labeling students’ artworks;

e) Portfolio Info Flyer (for students in twelfth grade pursuing art scholarships)

3. We encourage you to share all info with other teachers at your school & beyond!

4. Please make all requests for info NOW or not later than December 16, 2011, so you will have time to prepare all before leaving for Christmas/winter break.

We look forward to your & your students’ participation!

Thank you for all that you do!

Helena Ehlke, Coordinator of The Scholastic Art Awards - Wisconsin Competition and Exhibition at The Milwaukee Art Museum
414-224-3832