

NAHS Hands-On Art Experience for Middle & High School Students!

REGISTER NOW! SPACE IS LIMITED TO 100 STUDENTS!

Students, Teachers, Parents:

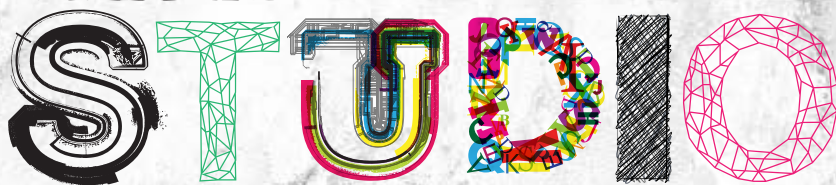

You and your outstanding visual arts students are invited to participate in the 2016 National Art Honor Society (NAHS) Creative Industries Studio (CIS) to be held November 17-19 in Washington, DC.

CIS is a national program that brings outstanding visual arts students (as well as their teachers and parents) together to celebrate visual arts academics, refine their knowledge of fine arts skills and interests, explore arts-related careers, and expand college/career readiness.

Students may attend as part of a school group or independently when accompanied by a teacher, parent, or approved chaperone.

National Art Honor Society

CREATIVE INDUSTRIES

November 17-19, 2016 | Washington, DC

Outstanding Art Students Will Experience:

- Interactive portfolio reviews and roundtable sessions with representatives from member schools of the Association of Independent Colleges of Art and Design
- Extensive visual journaling workshops with content that expands beyond the art class to other subjects
- Hands-on filmmaking workshop led by the nationally-renowned "Fresh Films" team,
- Special access to DC's premier museums and onsite programming
- Collaboration with art students from across the country
- The opportunity for artwork to be displayed nationally at the National Art Education Association's Gallery
- Experience a diverse range of art supplies, products, and technology (ALL MATERIALS ARE INCLUDED WITH REGISTRATION!)

+ MORE!

Student Registration: $130

Teacher/Chaperone
Registration: $95

Discounted Accommodations: Holiday Inn Washington-Capitol

Access the CIS program overview, registration details and materials, and discounted hotel accommodations information at:
<http://nahs.getforge.io>

Questions? Please contact Heather Overvold, NAEA Member Services and NAHS Programs Coordinator at NAHS@arteducators.org or 703-889-1289