Frequently Asked Questions

What is the review process?

The evaluation committee, made up of a panel of WEA Member Benefits employees, will review eligible artwork submitted by any student enrolled in a Wisconsin School District in grades K-12. Criteria include: originality, expression, use of elements/principals of design, overall presentation of artwork and its message. Please note that this is for WEA Member Benefits; therefore, we will not include any images that contradict or diminish the organization's interest.

What happens if my artwork is chosen?

Artists will receive a $50 Amazon Gift Card and a $50 Amazon gift card for their art teacher. WEA Member Benefits will request that you email a high resolution image or, depending on the nature of the piece, we may ask that the original be shipped to our office—at WEA Member Benefits' expense. If WEA Member Benefits chooses to display the original artwork, it may be returned to the artist. WEA Member Benefits will not be held liable or responsible for any damages that may occur during shipping.

Artist agrees to allow WEA Member Benefits to use his/her name in promotional materials (i.e. invitations, flyers, press releases, website, etc.).

Where will the art be displayed?

All artwork will be displayed at the WEA Member Benefits headquarters in Madison. Artwork may rotate between the lobby, meeting rooms, offices, and other locations throughout the building. Winning artwork may be altered from its original size to meet framing standards.
