WELCOME TO

ARTIST TRADING CARDS

Artist trading cards (ATCs) are miniature, individually made or small-series works of art measuring 2.5 by 3.5 inches (the same size of a standard baseball card or playing card).

Where did this Originate?

APRIL 1997 IN ZURICH, SWITZERLAND

The display included 1,200 hand-crafted miniature cards.

What Media?

- ✓ Drawing
- ✓ Painting
- ✓ Collage
- ✓ Mixed Media
- ✓ Weaving

Keeping Track

Creators usually sign, date, title the piece, and list their contact info or series number on the reverse side.

Why Make ATC's?

They are small and portable. They are an easy way to experiment with various processes on a small and managable scale.

- NOT AI
- Original Art
- Easy to Store

THE ONE RULE OF ATC's

ATCs are made to be traded, swapped, or gifted NEVER sold.

trading time!

Student Made Examples
Always a hit!

Makes a great gift or card!

Make and share today!

REMEMBER THEY ARE NOT FOR SALE!