

Wisconsin Art Education Association Board of Directors

- The Executive Board oversees the organization.
- The WAEA Board is organized under three main strands: “Programs”, Professional Development” and “Communication”.
- The Regional VP, K-12 Divisional Reps and Program Chairs are primarily responsible for program information distribution and participation, and help with Art Times articles and website updating.
- The other divisional reps, Awards Chair and Advocacy Chair work primarily on Professional Development initiatives and the Fall Conference.
- The Art Times editor, Webmaster, Historian, Advertising Chair and Layout Editor are the communications link for the organization and communicate with the Conference and Program Chairs for publicity.
